REJECT ADIE FOR ALDERMAN

Board Refuses To Confirm Nomination

ROW OVER SILVER STREET

Alderman McKenzie and Robins in Wordy Conflict, Call Names.
Etc.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council last evening came near resolving itself into a "monkey and parrot" time, and was only saved from such by the efforts of Mayor Barclay in pouring oil on the troubled waters. The trouble began over a petition from property owners on No. Seminary street, from Maple avenue to Brook street, to have the street filled and graded and curbing set. Alderman McKenzie said all the abutters asked for was to have the street surveyed. Alderman Robins contended that the petition could not be interpreted that way—that it called for a filling of the street and curbing, that meant more than survey.

McKenzie, after some talk, moved that the street commissioners be authorized to make a survey of North Seminary street from Maple avenue to Gunners brook.
This motion brought on more discussion, Albistett declaring that Woodchuck Knoll was in greater need of repairs. Robins declaring that McKenzie wanted to run everything and McKenzie declaring that Robins was a falsifier. The mayor finally succeeded in bringing the board to order and Alderman McKenzie's motion was carried. The petition was laid on the table.

The report of Chief of Police Brown showed 28 arrests in August, of which 23 were for intoxication.

A warrant for $328.29 court costs in favor of A. G. Fay was read and ordered paid, as well as a large number of other warrants.

A bill of $100 from White & Smith, for work done on the fire station foundations to Sept. 3, was ordered paid.
Alderman Albistett moved that the street commissioner be authorized to set curbing in front of Dennis Church on No.
Main street, and it was so voted.

The council adjourned and the board of aldermen called to order, Mayor Barclay siding in a communication nominating James Adie for Alderman from Ward 6, to succeed the late Alderman Duffy. The nomination was rejected by a vote of 3 to 2.
